

Miami Herald

SUNDAY, MARCH 29, 2015 | $2.00 | FINAL EDITION | MIAMIHERALD.COM

NEIGHBORS

BUILDING BETTER LIVES

When homeowner Nicole Donald reached out for help with her damaged roof, Coastal Cares spearheaded efforts with its subcontractors to get the job done and lift her family's spirits. Donald was forced to retire from the Miami Police Department after a 13-year career because of degenerative disk disease. On March 7, 28 volunteers from Coastal, as well as subcontractors Biscayne Roofing, Color Factory, Boulanger Drywall, All Green Landscaping, Gomez Fence and F&L Electric, gathered at Donald's residence to unveil the new roof. They also painted the home's exterior, and helped with landscaping and clean-up. Top row, from left, Javier Cabrera of Coastal Construction; Khamani Gordon; Khari Gordon; Shanasia Pierce; Pat Sessions; and Mike Murphy, Vice-Chair of Coastal Cares. Bottom row, from left, Khayden Gordon; Effie Donald; homeowner Nicole Donald; and Tangela Jones.